Comments on the Index of Authors, Places, Partial Index of Editors, Special Issues, and Memorial Issues will be found at the beginning of their respective sections.

It is sometimes difficult to locate full runs of Congo News Letters. The location on Library of Congress has portions of letters answering an inquiry to American Baptist institutions in 1972, plus that of books mailed to them this year, 2002. A web search site is also indicated. The Commission on Baptist in Congo Open office in Kinshasa has a full run, bound, individual publications, especially recent ones, they also own various books.

We are grateful to the staff at the American Baptist Historical Society at Valley Forge—Deborah Van Bopstoven, Betty Layton, Karen Okunow, and Charles Prosser—for their energetic and generous efforts to help us complete this project.

We trust that this booklet will facilitate access by all those who are interested in these important documents.

Preface

For 118 years, from 1884 to the present, American Baptists have been working in Congo. From the very small membership inherited from the Livingstone Inland Mission in 1884, the work has grown to the place where in 2001 a church of 318,876 members carried on a ministry of education to 188,839 students, and healing to 330,235 patients, as well as programs of agriculture, literacy, and evangelism.

From 1910 to 1972 the missionaries published the Congo News Letter each quarter with a few exceptions (mostly during the World Wars). They tell the story of the work in Congo, known as the Congo Free/Independent State after its founding in 1885. It became the Belgian Congo in 1908, the Republic of Congo in 1960, the Democratic Republic of the Congo in 1964, the Republic of Zaire in 1971, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo in 1997. The Congo News Letter was named Zaire News Letter for the 1994 issue and the March 1972 issue and Nkand'a Kintwadi for the issues of June and December 1972. There are a total of 231 issues with 2,587 articles by 444 authors, some of whom are Congolese.

These articles are a rich source for Congolese and international historians as well as for those simply interested in this varied and fascinating past. The purpose of this booklet is to increase accessibility to them.

The Tables of Contents are simply lifted from those of the various issues, and arranged on a page for each year of publication. Many were printed with author, title, and page, but in the earlier years, up to Oct 1947, we needed to add a page number. Others had no table of contents at all, so that had to be typed up—all the issues of 1910 and 1911, the first three issues of 1912, Feb 1918, Nov 1924, all 1925 and 1926, Jul 1930, Apr 1950, and Apr 1951. The issues were assigned no volume and issue numbers until 1925, and after that the designations were erratic at times, so we have limited references to the more stable month and year indications. However, one must note that the month of publication varied within the year. For example the first issue of 1916 was April, but that of 1924 was January.

The first seven issues were mimeographed at Kimpese. The rest were edited and/or printed at various locations: Banza Manteke, Bolenge, Kimpese, Kinshasa, Sona Bata, Tshumbiri, and Vanga. We could not locate a copy of the very first issue, but fortunately it was republished in Mission magazine. (The page numbers we show for that issue are the page numbers from its reprint in Mission.) One issue, that of Dec 1961, came out in both French and English versions.

Comments on the Index of Authors, Partial Index of Places, Partial Index of Editors, Special Issues, and Memorial Issues will be found at the beginning of those sections.

It is sometimes difficult to locate full runs of Congo News Letter. The section on Library Holdings has portions of letters answering an inquiry to American Baptist institutions in 1992, plus lists of issues mailed to them this year, 2002. A web search site is also indicated. The Communauté Baptiste du Congo Ouest office in Kinshasa has a full run, bound. Individual missionaries, especially retired ones, may also own various issues.

We are grateful to the staff at the American Baptist Historical Society at Valley Forge—Deborah Van Broekhoven, Betty Layton, Ferron Okewole, and Charles Primavera—for their energetic and competent efforts to help us complete this project.

We trust that this booklet will facilitate access by all those who are interested in these important documents.

This index is taken from the tables of contents of the Congo News Letters and reconciled to a standard form of each author's name using the Appendix of Diatungwa Va Tadi, by Viola Smith, and personal acquaintance by the editors of this publication of some of the Congo News Letter authors. This index omits all unsigned articles and articles signed "Editor". Readers may refer to the Index of Editors to determine who may have written those articles. For the Dec 1956 and Dec 1957 issues, no authors were listed. In general, Congolese authors are listed with the family name first, as are the Western authors.

Places of the Congo News Letter

This index is based on Tables of Contents alone, thus excluding some of the more substantive articles with unrevealing titles. The modern name of Kinshasa has been used in the indexing for references to the old name of Leopoldville.

Alphabetical by Editor

The editor's name was not printed until the October 1947 issue. From internal research we have been able to add to the list of known editors and to suggest probable editors for other, but not all, issues. Since many issues had an unnamed editorial, we felt it important to indicate who wrote it. Those who are only probable editors are indicated with an asterisk.

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST — SAMUEL COLGATE HISTORICAL LIBRARY

1106 South Goodman Street, Rochester, New York 14620 - 2532 716 / 473 - 1740

Our library holds a substantial but incomplete run of Congo Newsletter beginning with Volume 1 Number 2 in 1910 through June 1972, and the 1973 Nkand'a Kintwadi Calendar.

I believe the run from Volume 15 (1924) through 59 (1967) is complete. We have from one to three issues for most other years. If you require a detailed listing, let me know and we can provide that.

It may be that there will be a more complete run at Valley Forge, either at the Board of International Ministries Library or at the American Baptist Archives Center.

Thank you for your letter of April 5, 1992, concerning the magazines of the missionaries of Zaire: Congo News Letter, Zaire News Letter, and Nkand'a Kintwadi.

We have checked our records and find that we have the issues from 1924-1971 with some issues missing in these volumes.
